March 2014

Greetings
from PASTOR GAYE

Dear Friends,

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 5th, and concludes 40 days later on Holy Saturday, April 19th. The six Sundays in Lent are not counted among the forty days of Lent because each Sunday represents a "mini-Easter", a celebration of Jesus' victory over sin and death.

During Lent, we remember that God gave the world Jesus, and Jesus gave us his life. While many people may think of Lent as a somber time to "give up" things, we might better see it as a time to give back... our hearts, our lives, and our gifts in response to God's own gracious generosity in our lives.

Lent is a time when we are called to self-reflection and to intentional acts that draw us closer to God. The theme we have chosen for Lent this year is "Don't Give Up, Give Back!"

There are several ways you are invited to participate in this holy season.

Wednesday Nights:

Ash Wednesday service will be held at 7:00pm on March 5th. Along with the traditional celebration of imposing ashes, we will be adding a "Burning Bowl" ceremony where we will release those things that are barring our way to a close relationship with God.

Give Back Wednesdays will meet at 6:30 in fellowship hall. These events are geared for the entire family to do together, and are a great way to teach your children or grandchildren the lessons of giving of oneself through hands-on service to the community. We will begin with a short simple meal and then work together on a project that serves our neighbors. (See the mission article for details on each Wednesday's project)

Sunday Mornings:

Join us at 9:15am on four Sundays for based on the movie Son of God. Each week, we will view a short video clip from the movie and then discuss an aspect of who Christ was and is to the world. You don't need to have seen the movie to attend the class. Topics will be...

March 9: The Savior of the World
March 16: The Son of God
March 23: The Man of Sorrows
March 30: The Lamb of God

Maundy Thursday:

A Living Last Supper service will be held on Thursday, April 17th at 7:00pm. It will be a combination of traditional music, video, and dramatic reading along with communion. This is a service you will truly not want to miss as we close out the season of Lent and prepare our hearts for the resurrection of Christ on Easter morning!

On Your Own:

Pick up an "Upper Room" Devotional outside the office door and use Lent to start a habit of daily devotional reading. Another resource is the weekly "Taking Faith Home" bulletin insert.

May we grow closer to Christ and one another during this Holy season.

Blessings,

Pastor Gaye

A POWERFUL TRANSFORMATIVE RITUAL FOR LENT: THE BURNING BOWL CEREMONY

The late great American minister and author Dr. Norman Vincent Peale once wrote, 'There is a spiritual giant within you, which is always struggling to burst its way out of the prison you have made for it.' That spiritual giant is a power—a potentiality—of which perhaps you are not even aware. This power can, however, remake you in every way. Call it God or the spirit of life, or Being itself, there is an almighty power and presence that is capable of making all things new. That power and presence can indeed recreate each one of us in mind and body, and fill us with new life. It can even transform our whole world!

Life is, or at least ought to be, a continual process of 'letting go and letting be'. There is a certain 'rhythm' to life and Nature, and that rhythm is one of ... letting go ... and letting be. Yes, letting go in Lent so that 'new life' may resurrect at Easter. As we approach Lent, I ask you this—'How willing are you—and I—to let go of all that is holding us back?' I am thinking especially of bad habits, addictions, negative thoughts and emotions, and unhealthy relationships. You see, most of us resist change, largely because we fear it, but also because change—real, meaningful change in our lives—is never easy. We make so many excuses for letting go of what is bad for us. We even say, 'I can't change. That's just the way I am' Rubbish! That is nonsense. The way you are now may well be the way you have been for quite some time but in truth it is not the real person that you are. Actually, each of us is changing all the time. The problem is that as soon as we see we have changed (shock, horror!) we tend to revert quickly to our old selves, because that feels safer and more secure. But is it really good for us? You know the answer to that.

Now, there is a transformative ritual known as the 'Burning Bowl Ceremony.' The performance of this ritual helps us to let go of old hurts, grudges, resentments, regrets and suffering, indeed, to relinquish anything that is separating us from God, ourselves and one another and which we wish to relinquish.

In most religions, fire is a symbol of purification and transformation—and power! In the Burning Bowl Ceremony you write down on a small piece of paper whatever it is—it may be more than one thing—that you want to be free of. The act of writing down what you want gone from your life is a very important part of the letting go process—indeed, there is great power in so doing. Then spend a moment or two in quiet prayer by way of personal commitment and surrender. If there is anything else holding you back—there almost always will be, you know—become aware of what it is, and let that go as well. Now set alight your piece of paper, and quickly drop the paper into the burning bowl .

Saint Paul wrote, 'be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind' (Rom 12: 2). That is what the Burning Bowl Ceremony is all about—transformation and new life. It all begins in the mind. May this Lenten season be a time of real, meaningful spiritual growth for you.

What does stewardship mean to you?

By: Grace Duddy and Chick Lane

Before I began working at the Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Foundation about a dozen years ago, I really had no idea what the word “stewardship” really meant, even though I have been in the church all of my life. There I learned that this word has a deep faith-filled meaning. I love the quote, “Stewardship is everything you do after you say ‘I believe.’”

Stewardship is an act of gracious discipleship founded upon the premise that all that we have and all that we are, belongs to God. We are to be good managers of all that God has entrusted to our care. When stewardship is looked at in a healthy way, taking into account all of what God has entrusted to our care, we feel much more excited to participate. This sort of stewardship invites us to look at all that they have—time, talents and treasure—be grateful to God... and learn how we might share these gifts with our neighbors.

I'm amazed at the number of people for whom stewardship is a code word that means, “What the church does to try to get some of my money from my pocket into the offering plate.” That is amazing, because it is exactly the opposite of how the Bible defines stewardship. Stewardship begins with an understanding that everything belongs to God, and God has entrusted some of what is God's into our care. That caring is stewardship.

One encouraging sign in the changing church is that people are starting to get this new/old way of thinking about stewardship. It isn't about the church getting enough money to pay the bills. It is about how I, as a follower of Jesus, integrate all of life with my faith.
